On May 30, 2011 I was badly burned by scalding hot coffee in the main kitchen while working as a trustee for ARAMARK, which is a private owned company. I was pushing a cart to the elevator when a hot coffee keg about 5 gals. that was not strapped down flipped over into my work boat, the coffee was at a 180 degrees and by the time I got my boat off I was already Cooked. I suffered 2nd and 3rd degree burns to my right leg and foot, from my knee down is raw, I was transported by sherrif van to the Burn Unit at the med. Every since then I have been neglected for the care of my leg and I hurt everyday. This happened at breakfast time while Feeding the Inmates. I was confined to a wheel chair for a whole month.
